

I think Sinclair Broadcasting is violating the public trust and engaging in partisan politics by ordering their local stations to air political pieces in favor of President Bush. The FCC should take action to stop such abuses of the public trust.